Fifteen miles of pine straw roads have been built in the northern district of Volusia county under the supervision of County Commissioner McBride. This class of roads are said to be the solution of the good roads problem in the country districts of Florida. Lee Hart of Nocatee cut the throat of Fred Roberts, almost cutting Robert's head off with a razor. The affair happend at Nocatee, and grew out of a dispute over 50 cents, which Hart claimed Roberts owed him. Hart surrendered to Sheriff Fielder, and is confined in the county will and is confined in the county jail.

gustine, last Monday afternoon, Miss Daisy Sligh, a charming young lady Daisy Sligh, a charming young lady pupil of the academy was married to Alex. St. Clair Abrams, the well-known Jacksonville lawyer. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Kenny, with only the mother and sisters of the bride present as witnesses. The bride is but 18 years of age. Major Alex. St. Clair-Abrams is about 18.

The verdict, which was confidently anticipated, was greeted with an instantly suppressed outbreak of apis about 65.

The indications all point to the adoption in the recent election, of the two amendments to the constitu-tion—the one for the relief of the supreme court by an increase in the number of judges, and the other for a redistricting of the circuits and the addition of other circuit judges. But the vote was light. So far most of the cities show a decided majority in favor of the first amendment. The favor of the first amendment. The real vote will not be known for sev-9 00 eral days.

Capt. J. P. Scarlett, formerly well-known conductor on the S. F. & W. R'y, between Sanford and Tam-pa, was run down and killed by an Atlantic Coast Line train last Thursday night at Lakeland. Capt.
